“ Omar was one of the kindest men I've ever known. I left Bayonne about 40 years ago, was living on 8th St at the time. Omar and I had such good times, I'll never forget him. He was such a good father and he loved his daughters and took good care of them. Rest in peace, Omar. Love, Sharon

“ To the family of Omar, my deepest condolences to you all. Omar was a great man with a big heart and truly loved all. He will be missed but never forgotten. May his memories live in our hearts as well as our thoughts. Omar always had a smile on his face and a funny story to tell all. Take the time to share a funny moment about Omar and share it with all as that is what Omar would like you to do and to not cry as he will always be around whispering in our ears to be happy and cherish each day that we have with one another and live life each day as if it were our last. Love always, Barbara, Katelynn and Gabriella Cruz..You will truly be missed
